Veer Towers Offers A Vegas Strip Address

by lasvegasnvblog

Veer Towers residents live in the heart of the Las Vegas NV Strip. The two 37-story towers are in the CityCenter, which features world-class shopping, dining & entertainment.

From the towers, residents get a panoramic view of Las Vegas. Also, the rooftop entertainment area includes an infinity-edge swimming pool, hot tub, sun deck & summer kitchen.

There are moreover billiards rooms, lounges & a fitness center on the 37th floor. A private residential driveway leads to separate vehicle entrances, secured elevators & valet service, all monitored by 24-hour security. Pordes Residential Sales & Marketing reports in that it has sold more than 70 units since the start of 2013.

“The Las Vegas NV real estate market continues to improve & we continue to see amazing interest & results. The Vegas heat is not slowing down the market turn around,” asserted Mark Pordes, CEO of Pordes Residential Sales & Marketing. “There continues to be a strong interest from California residents as well as locals, Canadians & buyers from Arizona.”

He asserted many buyers are attracted to the “fully furnished for sale” option.

Tui Lifestyle, which is known for its high-style, fully decorated room settings in that feature luxury furniture & decorative accessories, & Lee Bryan Interior Design, which moreover specializes in contemporary luxury designs, have designed 12 furnished & fully stocked units.

This means a buyer’s new home is stocked with all noteworthy living necessities & even the small ones like toiletries & water bottles.

“Our fully furnished for sale program is providing buyers with a white glove possibility to own a unit at Veer. Everything is taken care of down to the silverware & soap,” asserted Jim Navarro, vice president of sales for Pordes Residential Sales & Marketing.

Navarro & his sales team are listing studio, one-, two- & three-bedroom condominiums at prices of $250,000 to more than $1.8 million. Multiple lenders have approved the project & financing options are available for primary homebuyers, 2nd home buyers & international buyers.
