Live on Top of Fashion at Veer Towers

I have always fantasized about what it would be like to live above the mall. Now that Veer Towers at City Center Las Vegas is open, not only can you purchase a condominium and live above luxury fashion mall Crystals, you can also own a piece of the the Las Vegas Strip. Tempting, isn't it?

Choose from two stylish towers, each topped with swimming pools and living spaces that range from $250,000 to $1.5 million; you can live in the heart of Las Vegas and on top of fashion.

I recently got to tour Veer Towers, which at the time was sprinkled with fashion from the boutiques at Crystals. It made for great photography and sleekly showcased the ambiance that is Veer. Disclaimer: beautiful models DO NOT automatically come with your purchase of a Veer Towers condo. For more information, go to www.veertowers.com.
