Veer Towers throw party to celebrate Sales!

Posted by Brian Enright on Wednesday, July 10th, 2013 at 1:52pm.

Veer Towers have lead the real estate market recovery, so much that Jim Navarro, vice president of sale for Pordes Residential threw a big party on June 20th with over 500 guests to celebrate the momentum. This was a true Las Vegas Party with showgirls in giant bubbles, gorgeous models in model units, giveaways from luxury high end designers, tours of the skydeck roof with more entertainment and delicious food and beverages. Since 2013 over 60 units have sold at Veer Towers.

Highrises.com congratulates Veer Towers as well as their commitment to taking time to stop and celebrate accomplishments.
